Nowadays many people face difficult choice whether to live apart or together with parents and relatives. 1) Some relatives believe that nuclear family has more advantages than disadvantages while others think that extended family is more preferable one. 2) I would like to express my opinion on this problem. But all the same, there are clear benefits and drawbacks to both opinions.

My personal view is that living a nuclear family is 3) much more comfortable and has significant benefits I would like to support my point of view with some arguments. On the one hand, 4) in nuclear family there is no misunderstanding and family members enjoy a harmonious atmosphere by living together. On the other hand, 5) children have more close relations with parents than in extended family. Moreover, 6) nuclear family has more daily routines like eating dinner together, adding to consistency.

My opponents believe that 7) there is no help at hand as there are no other members to help out with cooking and cleaning and managing daily household duties. Besides, 8) feeling of loneliness is one of the most important drawbacks of the nuclear family.

But personally, I incline more to the opinion of 9) those who think that nuclear family is more suitable one as I have my lovely helpful parents. All my relatives live apart and we meet regularly, share our news, have own parties or holidays.

All in all, I still strongly believe that 10) that living in nuclear family is more comfortable because there are less quarrels and disagreements and wonderful atmosphere. But every person solves the problem in his / her own way. (263)
